

JEB DUNNUCK

92

POINTS

Floral and fresh, the 2024 Pinot Noir Willamette Valley pours a medium ruby hue and lifts from the glass with raspberries, ripe strawberries, roses, tarragon, and cooling piney herbs. Medium-bodied, it has great energy, purity, silky fine tannins, and a long finish. It's a total charmer and should disappear quickly at the table now or over the coming 5-6 years.

WINE SPECTATOR

POINTS

This is nicely structured, with appealing pomegranate and raspberry flavors that are framed by cola and dusky spice tones as this finishes with refined tannins. Drink now through 2034.
