TRUE OREGON PINOT NOIR

EST. 1988

A PIONEERING STORY. FROM NAPA TO OREGON.

Benton-Lane is revered for crafting outstanding 100% estate-grown Pinot Noir while being stewards of the land. In the early 1980s Steve Girard, an esteemed Napa winemaker, left California to find the ideal Pinot Noir estate. In 1988 he founded Benton-Lane in the Southern Willamette Valley – the perfect place to grow silky, seductive and expressive Pinot Noir.

Today, Benton-Lane has more Top 100 Wines of the World than any other still wine producer in Oregon.

THE SOUTHERN WILLAMETTE VALLEY

Steve Girard spent a decade looking for the ideal land to plant Pinot Noir. While Oregon vintners were focused in the north, he found the perfect land in the remote southern Willamette Valley. This pristine property, formerly a sheep farm, was situated in a 'banana belt' – providing shelter from the storms of the north and a warmer climate to allow grapes to ripen with full flavor. Free of pesticides and dangerous storms – this land was sure to produce legendary fruit.

FAMILY OWNED. SUSTAINABLY FARMED.

Steve Girard recently partnered with long-time friend Agustin Huneus to help with sales and marketing for Benton-Lane. This partnership allows more time for Steve to do what he does best – farming the land and caring for the estate. Steve continues to farm the estate with a proprietary blend of biodynamic, organic and sustainable farming practices.
